

Disciplinary Tribunal Committee Reference Guide

Preamble:

This reference guide focuses on 3 main areas involved with the game of rugby league:

1. League Safe and Sports Trainers
2. Coaches
3. Spectators / Others

This guide references three (3) levels of consequence:

- Low Range (Abusive)
- Medium Range (Threatening)
- High Range or Extreme Range (Physical or Violent)

Remember this is only a Reference Guide to assist our Tribunal members and to let the rugby league community know the consequences and the parameters for inappropriate behaviour in our great game

Low Range (Abusive)

- 1-8 week’s suspension from participating in the game

Who	Action	Examples
Coach	Verbally abuses match officials, player’s spectator or other coaching staff including trainers Plays bogus players and/or unregistered players Makes physical contact with players that is non-threatening and/or not considered to be inflaming a situation such as	Coach who verbally abused a match official after a game in a non-threatening way was given a 3-week suspension from participating in the game i.e. Can’t play, coach or hold any official role in the game for a period of 3 weeks but can attend games Coach who verbally abused another coach during and after a game was given a 1 year suspended sentence from coaching in the game i.e. He was allowed to continue coaching but had a physically restraining a junior player that poses a risk to themselves and others	suspended sentence that would be activated if he acted inappropriately in any way during that year Coach who stood in the road of players during an altercation after the game and accidentally made contact with an opposition player was suspended for 6 weeks Coach who played an unregistered player had his club fined and they lost their competition points despite winning the match and was suspended from coaching for 6 weeks

Leaguesafe / Trainer	Verbally abuses match officials, players' spectator or other coaching staff including trainers Makes physical contact with players that is non-threatening and/or not considered to be inflaming a situation such as physically restraining a junior player that poses a risk to themselves and others	Leaguesafe runner made non-threatening contact with a player in a melee and received an official warning and a fine on his club Sports Trainer had a verbal altercation with another Leaguesafe officer was suspended from participating in the game for 6 weeks with a year's suspended sentence also provided Leaguesafe officer who verbally abused a referee was suspended from participating in the game for 4 weeks
Spectators (defined as any individual attending a venue regardless of position held) includes others such as Club or League Office Bearers and / or Committee members	Verbally abuses match officials, player's spectator or other coaching staff including trainers Makes physical contact with players that is non-threatening and/or not considered to be inflaming a situation such as physically restraining a junior player that poses a risk to themselves and others *Includes such things as drunken behaviour and obscene language usage	Disorderly conduct by a club official at a junior league game (verbal altercation with another club official) – 4 weeks' suspension from participating officially in the game Disorderly conduct by a club official at a junior league game (verbal altercation with another club official) – 6 weeks' suspension from participating officially in the game Spectator who yelled obscene and derogatory remarks towards a match official was excluded from attending rugby league for 8 weeks

Medium Range (Threatening)

- Penalties vary from 2 month suspension / exclusion to 2 years, applied only to the Division where the incident occurs

Who	Action	Examples
Coach	Threatens match officials, players, spectators, other coaching staff with physical violence	Coach was charged with bringing the game into disrepute for going to the Referees room after the game to threaten the referee and was suspended from participating in the game for a period of 9 months ie He was not allowed to have any active involvement in the game for 9 months

	Play bogus players and unregistered players knowingly and not an isolated case Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Coach who threatened and intimidated a coach at the conclusion of a match was suspended for a period of 1 year with another year suspended i.e. He was not allowed to coach for 1 year Coach who played an unregistered player in a senior game was given 1 year's suspension from participating in the game i.e. Can't play, coach or hold any official role in the game for a period of one year but can attend games Coach who played a bogus player in a senior game was given 1 year's suspension from participating in the game i.e. Can't play, coach or hold any official role in the game for a period of one year but can attend games
Leaguesafe / Trainer	Threatens match officials, players, spectators, other coaching staff with physical violence Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Leaguesafe runner had a minor physical altercation with another trainer in a senior's finals match and was suspended for participating in the game for a period of 1 year Leaguesafe officer who abused and threatened match official during a match and was suspended from participating in the game for 6 months
Spectators (defined as any individual attending a venue regardless of position held) includes others such as Club or League Office Bearers and / or Committee members	Threatens match officials, players, spectators, other coaching staff with physical violence Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Disorderly conduct by a spectator at a junior rugby league match – received a 1 year warning off with a further year suspended Spectator who abused and threatened a match official at the end of a senior match was warned off for 1 year Spectator who approached a match official in a threatening way was warned off from attending all QRL venues for a period of 5 months Threatening abuse by an office bearer of a club to another club office bearer resulted in a 1.5-year suspension from participating in the game of rugby league

High Range (Physical)

- Penalties vary from 2 years to 10 years' suspension/ expulsion from the game of rugby league can be applied state-wide

Who	Action	Examples
-----	--------	----------

Coach	Physical violence displayed towards match officials, players, spectators or coaching staff The warning off or exclusion period from the game should also be applied in these cases Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Coach who threatened physical violence to a referee after a game and went their dressing room and had to be effectively locked out was given a 3.5-year suspension from participating in the game Coach who physically threatened and physically assaulted a match official after a game was warned off for 10 years i.e. The person is not allowed to attend any match held under the control / auspices of the QRL for a period of 10 years Coach who played a bogus player for the second time in a season was suspended from participating in the game for 5 years
Leaguesafe / Trainer	Physical violence displayed towards match officials, players, spectators or coaching staff Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Trainer who physically threatened and physically assaulted a match official after a game was warned off for 10 years i.e. The person is not allowed to attend any match held under the control / auspices of the QRL for a period of 10 years
Spectators (defined as any individual attending a venue regardless of position held) includes others such as Club or League Office Bearers and / or Committee members	Threatens match officials, players, spectators, coaching staff with physical violence Dealt with by the League under QRL Rules	Spectator abused and physically threatened an office bearer of a club and a match official and was warned off for 5 years Spectator entered field of play and approached and threatened an opposition player and was warned off for 2 years Spectator who initiated and had a serious physical altercation with another spectator was warned off for 10 years – criminal charges were also initiated Spectator who displayed serious disorderly conduct and physical violence resulting in police intervention was warned off for life Spectator who displayed physical violence to another stakeholder away from the game (not at a rugby league venue) was suspended indefinitely from the game and their children deregistered for the remainder of the league season awaiting results of a police investigation